

MEMORANDUM

105.2202-Henry L Dickman

M

John J. ^Manyon, a former state trooper, was killed by E. L. Stack a postal clerk in the employ of the U. S. Post Office Department at East Orange, N. J. while attempting a mail theft on August 1, 1924. Stack was praised by the Post Office Department and invited to the Capitol by President Coolidge . He was awarded $2,00.00 by Post Master General New. He also received a gift from various insurance companies for his bravery.

Henry L. Dickman or Dieckman

Correct McConnell

Henry L. Dickman
Just B.

Proctor
Heath went 3 months before E. L. New